

Czechs Helping Castro Set Up 'Defenses'

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro, with Communist Czechoslovak technicians assisting, has been directing anti-invasion gunnery on the northern coast, informed sources said today.

These sources said members of Castro's people's militia, using Czech antitank artillery, fired at targets 15 miles at sea.

Confirming that Castro had been directing the gunnery practice "at some spot in Cuba" the semi-official newspaper Revolution claimed gunners made direct hits on the seaborne targets. This would be phenomenal marksmanship with an antitank gun of that size.

Revolution said the target practice took place last weekend. Ernesto Guevara, Cuba's economic chief, confirmed that Communist leader Osvaldo Sanchez and two Cuban air force fliers died Monday night in the crash of their plane after it was fired on by Cuban defense batteries on invasion watch near the resort of Veradero.

There were signs Cubans were beginning to tire of the "invasion from the north" warnings that have put this island on a virtual war footing.

Castro soon may announce that the strength of his people's army has frightened off the American aggressors he claimed would invade Cuba before Jan. 20.

Government-controlled press, radio and television continued to trumpet warnings that invasion would come before President Eisenhower turns over the White House to John F. Kennedy.

Big headlines still denounced the U.S. Navy maneuvers in the Caribbean and the visit Monday of the supercarrier Franklin D. Roosevelt to the base on Guantanamo Bay.

But the rank-and-file defenders of the island seemed to be losing some of their enthusiasm for the 24-hour alert.

More and more regular army soldiers are appearing in Havana. Some were relieving militiamen, indicating the part of the thousands called up in the latest invasion scare were returning to factory and farm work.

Castro's claim to have scared off the United States again may come Friday night, when Cuban labor organizations will hold another huge demonstration before the presidential palace. The prime minister presumably will address the meeting.

The Cuban News Agency said in a dispatch from Puerto Rico that more than 100 anti-Castro Cubans had taken refuge at the U.S. base and that some were being flown to Puerto Rico. There was no confirmation or denial from U.S. officials at the base.

Demonstrations for and against Castro continued in other Latin American centers.

Pro- and anti-Castro groups battle din the streets of Montevideo, Uruguay, Tuesday night in anticipation of a government decision on future relations with the Cuban regime. Several persons suffered minor injuries, and many were arrested.

Pro-Castro groups demonstrated in downtown Buenos Aires, Argentina. They burned effigies of Uncle Sam, broke a window of the U.S. Information Agency and stoned a branch of the First National City Bank of New York. About a dozen persons were arrested.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sixteen Arkansans have been nominated for postmasterships by President Eisenhower. They are: William McKinley Huddleston, Batesville; Cline C. Pile, Charleston; Clarence E. Lacotts, De Witt; Everett L. Hall, Hazen; Oscar H. McKamey Jr., Imboden; William H. Jones, Jasper; Wilburn Gale Manna, Luxoria; Ruby R. Ryan, Magazine; Ralph W. Bolain, Pegg; Hubert C. Robbins Jr., Piggott; William B. Naylor, Pleasant Plains; James G. Still, Saint Joe; Warren Whitlow, Strawberry; Joe L. Mills, Sulphur Springs; Eugene K. Bartholomew, West Fork; Earl D. Miller, Alexander.

Quatemala Admits U.S. Advisers

By ALVARO CONTRERAS

GUATEMALA (AP)—Guatemala has confirmed U.S. military officers are acting as advisers to army troops undergoing intensive guerrilla training at a hitherto secret base at Retalhuleu.

Defense Minister Enrique Peralta Azurdia denied the troops are being trained for any aggressive action against Cuba's Fidel Castro regime. He termed the training "routine activities by the Guatemalan army."

"It should be remembered," the minister said, "that American military and air missions are in Guatemala and normally give valuable advice to our army."

Peralta Azurdia, whose government has broken relations with Cuba and charged Castro with complicity in an unsuccessful revolt there last November, was commenting on a New York Times dispatch from Retalhuleu. Times correspondent Paul P. Kennedy said the United States is supplying Guatemala with training personnel, supplies and other assistance in preparing a commando-type force for a possible clash with Castro's troops.

Kennedy said Guatemalan officials claimed an invasion of Guatemala from Cuba was imminent. The Miami Herald reported that recruits, some of the American, for months have been selecting men from anti-Castro forces in Miami for secret flights to Retalhuleu.

A month ago, the Herald said, the force collected in Guatemala numbered more than 4,000 guerrillas and more than 100 pilots. Many came from Latin American countries, the Herald said.

The U. S. State Department declined comment on the reports of U.S. participation in the training in Guatemala.

The Retalhuleu base is on the Pacific coast of Guatemala, about 700 miles from Cuba.

Vaccinations for Bang's to Start

Calhoun vaccination against the Bangs disease will start in Hempstead County during the last of January according to Calvin Caldwell, county agent.

Why is it important for beef calves from 4 to 8 months of age to be vaccinated against this disease? It has been estimated that the annual loss in the U.S. caused by Bangs disease runs over 100 million dollars. The loss in milk accounts for 50 million, loss of calves 32 million and loss caused in other livestock around 13 million dollars.

This disease, if present on a farm, presents a health hazard to people. Undulant fever in humans is caused by the same disease organism that causes Bangs disease or Brucellosis in cattle.

Anyone with calves to vaccinate should turn his name and the number of calves into the County Extension Service by Jan. 20, the county agent said.

Brooks Collins, Technician with the Livestock Sanitary Board will do the vaccinating.

Berserk U. S. Guard Shoots 4, Kills Self

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government building guard went berserk today, shot down four persons and killed himself.

Two of his four victims died instantly. The others were critically wounded.

The dead: John Pledger, 40, a uniformed guard at the main Navy building, Constitution Ave. and 18th St., who took his own life at the end of his shooting spree. Pledger was a civilian employee of the General Services Administration which has custodial duties for all government buildings.

Pledger's estranged wife, Zelma, 32.

Dr. Monroe G. Gregory, 50, of Annapolis, Md.

The wounded:

Augustus Valentine, 37, a co-worker of Mrs. Pledger in the Navy Bureau of Ships, reported in critical condition at George Washington University Hospital.

Theodore Wells, 38, an employee in the same office, reported in undetermined condition but conscious at the same hospital.

Police reported the shootings started shortly after 9 a.m. at a temporary building, behind the main Navy building. Pledger, wearing his blue guard's uniform, walked into his wife's office. Police said they are not certain of what conversation may have taken place but the 6-foot, 200-pound guard had two guns and started shooting.

An undetermined number of bullets were fired in Mrs. Pledger's office where she was fatally wounded and her two co-workers were wounded.

After this, police said, Pledger got into his own automobile and drove to Dr. Gregory's office several blocks away.

Inspector Joseph W. Shimon said Pledger walked through the reception room, passed two waiting patients and a cleaning woman, and entered the treatment room.

Inspector Shimon theorized there must have been a scuffle between Dr. Gregory and Pledger before the physician was shot and killed. Although his residence was in Annapolis, Dr. Gregory maintained an office here.

Tribute Is Paid to Eisenhower

NEW YORK (AP)—They honored Dwight D. Eisenhower Tuesday night in a tribute that traced the story of his life from prairie boyhood to the White House.

The President, who leaves office Jan. 20, was hailed as a "great man," "man of peace" and a "patriot" by various world leaders.

President-elect John F. Kennedy paid tribute to "the grace and the courtesy with which power has been moved from the Eisenhower administration to the new Democratic administration."

Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Eisenhower had been a great president.

The occasion was a special NBC television program, "Tribute to a Patriot." The taped program consisted of still photographs, films, tape recordings and interviews with boyhood pals, colleagues and statesmen. It was moderated by actor James Stewart.

Besides Kennedy and Nixon, speakers included British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

The vice president originally had declined to appear on the program, saying he was previously committed. He also said that he wished to stay off television in deference to Kennedy.

Airman 22, Admits Robbing Two Graves, Taking Jewelry From One, Body From Other

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Famed author Ernest Hemingway is slated for release from the Mayo Clinic here within the next two weeks after undergoing critical treatment since Nov. 30.

A clinic spokesman said neither Hemingway nor his wife, who accompanied him, would permit disclosure of the nature of his illness. It was emphasized that no surgery was involved.

Hays May Get State Dept. Position

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The Chattanooga Times today said that Brooks Hays, a director of the Tennessee Valley Authority, is scheduled to be appointed an assistant secretary of state by President-elect John F. Kennedy.

The Times, in a story by its Washington correspondent, Charles Bartlett, said: "Brooks Hays is scheduled to be appointed an assistant secretary of state, it is learned on good authority."

"The departure of the former Arkansas congressman (from the TVA board) . . . would create a vacancy which would present President Kennedy with the opportunity to name a TVA chairman if he so desires."

The Times said Hays is "to become assistant secretary of state for congressional relations." The newspaper noted that he is the junior member of the TVA board and a man appointed to fill his place would inherit a term that runs until May 1, 1963.

Herbert D. Vogel, present chairman of the authority, was quoted by the Times as saying he had no plan to resign when Kennedy takes office. Vogel's term runs until May 19, 1963.

"Kennedy may be faced with the decision of whether to leave Vogel in command of the agency until his term ends," the Times said, "or give the chairmanship to the new man appointed in Hays slot."

Citizens Bank Increases Capital Stock

In its annual stockholders meeting Citizens National Bank issued $50,000 in dividends and increased its capital stock from $150,000 to $200,000, it was announced by R. M. LaGrone Jr., president.

In addition Mrs. Freeda R. Greenan was elected a director; Albert Graves and N. T. Jewell were elected vice presidents and Dale Jones was named vice-president and cashier.

O. A. Graves will continue as chairman of the board; Mr. LaGrone, president; Olin Lewis and Raymond F. Jones, assistant cashiers.

Directors are: S. L. Reed, O. A. Graves, Henry Haynes, George W. Peck, George W. Robinson, Frank McLarty, Jewel V. Moore Jr., Albert Graves, Dale Jones, R. M. LaGrone and N. T. Jewell.

Hemingway Is in Hospital

JACKSONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A 22-year-old airman at the Little Rock Air Force Base has told officers he broke into two graves at cemeteries here and took one body and jewelry from another.

Airman 2C Jerry Reynolds of Creighton, Mo. made an oral confession, Police Chief Myron J. Traylor told a press conference Tuesday night.

Reynolds was being held on an open charge.

Reynolds was taken into custody Tuesday at about the same time the body of a 17-year-old girl, missing from a grave at Bayou Melo Cemetery, was found in Jack's Bayou near here.

Traylor quoted Reynolds as saying he did not know why he committed the bizarre deeds, but said he "realized for some time that I was sick."

Reynolds was taken into custody after an unidentified Jacksonville woman reported to police that she had seen an airman walking through the cemeteries. Officers said that in Reynolds' car they found articles of clothing taken from one of the graves and the mate to a glove found in one of the violated graves.

Officers said Reynolds told them he took the girl's body the night of last Dec. 28. He said he took it to his trailer home near here and kept it in a bathtub until the next night, when he dumped it into the bayou about three miles north of here.

Then, he said, on Jan. 3 or 4 — he didn't remember which — he broke into a grave at Chapel Hill Cemetery and tried to remove the body of a 28-year-old woman. It was from this body that a necklace, two rings and a wrist watch were taken.

Reynolds' wife—who is expecting their first child in March — was not at home during the period in which the grave robberies occurred, Traylor said.

Ike to Be Only Speaker at GOP Meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has taken congressional Republicans off a political spot by agreeing to be their principal—and only—speaker at a June party fund-raising dinner.

Eisenhower's scheduled appearance at an affair honoring all Republican members of Congress probably will mark his first political task after he leaves the White House next week.

When they shifted their dinner date from May to June to suit the retiring president's convenience and got his agreement to speak, congressional sponsors breathed a sigh of relief.

They had a star attraction without having to choose between any of the potential 1964 contenders for the party's presidential nomination.

Although they are welcome to attend if they want to, sponsors said they are not issuing special invitations to retiring Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, a third possible contender, is one of the sponsors of the meeting as chairman of the Republican senatorial campaign committee.

Constitutional Amendment Bill Introduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas House today received a bill which would set up a constitutional convention for next Oct. 16.

The measure was introduced by Independence County Rep. Virgil J. Butler, whose paternal grandfather J. W. Butler, was one of the signers of Arkansas' present constitution, adopted in 1874.

Butler's bill provides for election of 100 delegates to the convention. These delegates would be chosen in a special election to be held next July 25. The various counties would have the same number of delegates to the convention as they now have representatives in the House.

The bill provides that the constitution drawn up by the convention be submitted for voter approval or rejection at least 60 days and not more than 120 days after the convention closes.

Butler said he felt that the present constitution, which has been amended 49 times could be made more concise. He said he had made no effort to determine how much support it would get.

Other bills introduced today would:

Add all roads in state parks to the state highway system.

Require that persons making political contributions over $25 to candidates for governor or Congress report such contributions to the Secretary of State.

Permit school districts to enter into compacts to exchange use of facilities.

Provide a mandatory 10-day jail term for persons caught driving while their licenses are revoked.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Twenty-three bills and three proposed constitutional amendments were introduced in the Arkansas House and 10 bills introduced in the Senate Tuesday as the 63rd General Assembly began to get down to business.

Before getting into action, the lawmakers met in joint session for the swearing in of the state's constitutional officers and to hear Gov. Orval E. Faubus make his 4th term inaugural address.

Faubus promised to continue his anti-integration fight, said he would not propose any new taxes and called for action to join in any federal program which would "improve the financial situation facing the unemployed workers in our state."

The governor said his administration would offer constitutional amendments which would guarantee that no child would be required to attend an integrated school and would make it easier to amend the state constitution in emergencies.

Under a proposed amendment introduced by Bradley Rep. Bill Wells the three-mile county road tax would be made a continuing levy and the levying of up to seven additional mills for county and the rural road purposes would be permitted. Under present law, the three-mill tax has to be submitted to the voters every two years.

While a number of measures hit the hopper Tuesday, the big issue was congressional redistricting.

Group Wants to Keep Blackwell

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A South-east Arkansas delegation, including members of the legislature, called on Gov. Orval E. Faubus today to urge reappointment of Lawrence Blackwell to the Arkansas Highway Commission.

Blackwell, co-author of the Mack-Blackwell Amendment to take the department out of politics, is serving a partial term which expires Jan. 14. There has been speculation that he might not be reappointed due to a controversy over location of new Highway 65 in Pine Bluff.

Rep. Raymond Mays, spokesman for the delegation said Faubus was non-committal about the appointment, but praised Blackwell's work on the commission.

Faubus has said he won't announce a decision on who he will appoint until he sends the man's name to the Senate for confirmation.

2 Americans Get Stay of Execution

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Two Americans, sentenced to hang for a piratical slaying in Bahamas waters, got another stay of execution when their counsel filed notice of appeal.

Lawyers for Billy Wayne Sees and Alvin Table Jr. served notice Tuesday that they would apply to the Privy Council in London for special leave to appeal the convictions. If the application is granted, counsel said, the case may not be settled for six months to a year.

Sees, 23, of Elbow, Ark., and Table, 25, of Torrance, Calif., were convicted in December of the April 22 fatal shooting of Angus Boatwright, 56, skipper of an Is-lamorada, Fla., charter fishing boat.

Boatwright was slain before the eyes of his first mate and four Pittsburgh vacationists who were on a fishing excursion. The shooting occurred after Boatwright refused to take Sees, Table and the latter's wife off Elbow Cay where they had wrecked a boat.

Under Bahamas law, appeals are entertained only on points of law. The chief justice rejected a defense contention that the prosecution was permitted unjustly to ask Sees and Table questions tending to show they were men of bad character in connection with crimes allegedly committed in the United States.

Hanging of Sees and Table originally was planned for Jan. 3, but the transcript of evidence was not completed before that time.

Seeks Action on Bill to Redistrict

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Rep. Raymond Mays said today he will press for a vote early next week on his congressional redistricting bill.

The House Reapportionment Committee will hold a public hearing on the bill next Tuesday night at the Marion Hotel. Mays said he will ask for committee action that night and will call the bill for a vote on Wednesday.

Mays said he would oppose any amendments to the measure. "I won't approve of any change in any manner," Mays said.

The Cleveland County representative said he felt nothing would be gained by delaying a vote on redistricting as U.S. Rep. Dale Alford suggested Tuesday. Alford said in a telegram to the House that Congress was studying the possibility of increasing membership in the U.S. House and that it might not be necessary for Arkansas to reduce its congressional districts from six to four.

"I don't think Congress will enlarge the house," Mays said. "This is just a delaying tactic. I think we should pass a redistricting bill as early as we possibly can."

Mays has 59 signatures on his bill with only 51 votes needed to pass it. A duplicate bill introduced in the Senate Tuesday by Sen. Marshall Shackelford of El Dorado had 18 signers, a majority of that body.

Mays said he was certain his bill would pass the House. However, he said he does not know about strength of support for the Senate measure.

Mays was blocked Tuesday in an attempt to pass the Redistricting Committee and place his bill on the House calendar immediately. Several House members—including some who signed the Mays Bill—took the floor to oppose this attempt and Mays backed down.

Negro Students Not Bothered at Georgia U.

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—Two teenage Negroes quietly sat down in classes with white students today after federal court rulings swept aside nearly two centuries of segregation at the University of Georgia.

Charlayne A. Hunter, 18, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, trudged along the oak and elm lined walkways to psychology and zoology classes respectively.

No crowds bothered them. There was just the usual flow of students making their way to the 9 a.m. classes in a score of buildings spread out over an area of more than two miles.

Some of the white boys and girls cast curious glances at the two Negroes. Others paid them no attention. Some spoke to them. It was just another day starting at one of the nation's higher educational centers.

While all was quiet in the university town, there were rumblings in Atlanta of further displeasure with integration on any level. House Speaker George L. Smith and State Auditor B. E. Thrasher Jr. expressed the opinion that the present appropriations act automatically cuts off funds to the university when integrated. But regardless of their views, normal operations proceeded.

Gov. Ernest Vandiver said the appeal to the high court exhausted the state's legal remedies. Vandiver earlier was stopped from closing the doors of the university by U.S. Dist. Judge W.A. Boatle's temporary injunction against cutting off state funds to the school.

The governor protested to Boatle "the sweeping nature of these orders attempting to take over the state legislative and executive processes," but said, "my respect for lawful processes and my oath as governor of the state of Georgia preclude any act of defiance on my part."

Miss Hunter, 18, a freshman from Atlanta, spent the night on the campus in a two room suite in a women's dormitory. Crowds gathered outside, some yelling, but a white crowd said later that white girls chatted with the Negro in her room in a generally friendly reception. Freshmen women are required to live on the campus.

Holmes, 19, a former student at Morehouse College in Atlanta, spent the night off-campus in Athens at an undisclosed location. He is not required to live on campus and was told there is no dormitory space available for him.

Miss Hunter completed registration Tuesday as a journalism student, transferring from Wayne University in Detroit, and Holmes as an arts and science major. He wants eventually to become a doctor.

Leaders of the Georgia Legislature, in session in Atlanta, although protesting Boatle's order as interference in state affairs, admitted it tied their hands at least until after a Thursday hearing on whether the injunction will be made permanent.

Mines Dangerous

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese shipping is still haunted by floating mines planted during World War II.

The Maritime Self-Defense Agency estimates 1,000 U.S.-made magnetic mines are floating about.

Plans are under way to launch a three year mine sweeping operation to get rid of these explosives.

The worst thing about men is that there aren't enough of them to go around.

Action on a measure by Cleve-postponed until next Tuesday by the House Committee on Congressional Redistricting.

Mays had earlier fought off a move to stall a routine second signatures—a majority.

A duplicate of the Mays bill was introduced in the Senate by Sens. Marshall Shackleford of El

Memphis and Russell Elrod of Siloam Springs.
Shackleford said he had the signatures of 18 members of the upper chamber, a majority.

Monday.
Arkansas will lose two of its six congressmen because of a population loss and it will be up to the Legislature to determine how the state is to be redistricted.

Among measures introduced in the House Tuesday were bills to:
1. Levy a one cent a bottle tax on soft drinks. Proceeds would equally divided by the municipal aid fund, the county aid fund and the State Hospital construction fund.
2. Provide a system for revok-

4. Exempt agricultural chemicals from the state sales tax.
5. Establish a state park at the site of the Civil War battle of Senate bills introduced Tuesday

Dillon Not Expected to Be Protested

WASHINGTON (AP) — Douglas Dillon, selected to be secretary of the Treasury in the Kennedy administration, said today he has no intention now of recommending a temporary tax cut to give the economy a lift.
He also told the Senate Finance Committee at a hearing on his appointment that it would be entirely up to Congress to decide whether to delegate authority to the president to raise or lower taxes.
And, in reply to questions about the drain on U.S. gold as a result of the adverse international balance of payments, he said he believed the problem could be solved in a way that would not adversely affect the economy of the free world.
Dillon said, however, that he did not want to discuss in public sessions the steps that might be taken.
The charge was the first by a Senate committee on any of the Cabinet appointments announced by President-elect John F. Kennedy.
The Foreign Relations Committee plans a hearing Thursday on a second top Cabinet figure, Dean Rusk, designated as secretary of state.
Orville L. Freeman, Kennedy's choice for secretary of agriculture, goes before the Senate Agriculture Committee Friday.
These sessions are informal since Kennedy cannot submit appointments until he is sworn in Jan. 20.
But, following past precedent, Democratic leaders hope to have all 10 Cabinet choices before the appropriate committees between now and the inauguration, and then have them confirmed almost as soon as their names are sent up formally.

Haiti Is in Midst of a Church Crisis

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) —
The expulsion of Haiti's leading Roman Catholic bishop, orders for the deportation of four other priests and closing of the church paper threaten a new crisis in relations with the Vatican.

The bishop was the second Catholic prelate deported in less than two months. Duvalier's government charged both were interfering in its efforts to rot out Communist and pro-Castro students from the University of Haiti. But back of both cases was Duvalier's suspicion that the churchmen were friendly to his political foes.
Bishop Remy Augustin, 50, apostolic administrator, was put on a plane for Puerto Rico by police Tuesday night 14 hours after he had been taken from his bed and arrested. He was not allowed to take along even his false teeth.
In San Juan, Bishop Augustin denied any connection with any anti-government group and said,
"I don't know why I was arrested and deported."

The Haiti-born bishop had been running church affairs in this predominately Catholic Negro country since November, when Archbishop Francois Poirier, 56, was deported to his native France on charges he had given a $7,000 check to aid striking university

Stop Airlift, Laos Warns Russians

By RENE-GEORGE INAGAKI

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Laotian government has threatened to take "appropriate steps" unless the Soviet government stops its airlift to pro-Communist rebels.

The warning to the Soviet Union, sent to the Soviet ambassador in London Monday, was made public shortly after the United States delivered the royal Laotian army its first armed planes.

Four propeller-driven observation planes, each armed with machine guns, were flown here Tuesday. Two other planes and a number of helicopters are also being turned over to Laos by the United States. The aircraft will be flown by Laotian pilots.

A Laotian spokesman said the planes were needed to check on the movements of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao in the north central Plaine des Jarres.

A U.S. spokesman said the delivery of defensive weapons was authorized under the 1954 Geneva agreement giving Laos independence. But protests are certain from the Communist nations supporting the Pathet Lao rebels and the forces of rebel Capt. Kong Le.
The note said the Soviet airlift to aid the rebels had not stopped despite a protest delivered Dec.
31, and that Soviet planes were continuing a daily delivery at air

students.
The archbishop denied the charges and the Vatican protested the "grave episode."

Oaklawn to Extend Season

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A third nine-race day will be added to the schedule at Oaklawn Race Track.

General Manager J. Sweeney
Grant said Tuesday that a nine-race schedule will be run on Fridays during the 31-day meet which begins Feb. 25. Wednesday and Saturday have been nine-race days in the past.
Grant said $740,000 in prize money will be distributed during the meeting, which will end April 1 with the $25,000-added Arkansas Derby.

Arkansan Held in California

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP) —
A 45-year-old Jonesboro, Ark., man was held here today in lieu of $50,000 bond, accused of being a member of the so-called San Bruno Homburg Hat gang.

Adolph P. St. Sauver is charged with taking part in a Dec. 14 robbery that netted $3,700 at the San Bruno Dollar Savings and Loan Association. He was arrested
Monday in San Francisco.

Police said the gang netted about $10,000 in recent holdups in the bay area. One member was slain and another escaped when police raided their San Bruno hideaway Sunday.

St. Sauver, known as Ted Paul Lavelle in Jonesboro, was involved in a shooting escapade last summer in the Brookland, near Jonesboro, when he and other men were caught by some citizens in the act of burglarizing a store. They escaped then, but were arrested later.

St. Sauver's bond was forfeited when he failed to appear for trial.

Program in High Tribute to President

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The NBC news department, in a reverent mood, Tuesday night presented an hour-long program paying tribute to retiring president Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Everyone, from Ike's grade school teacher to President-elect John F. Kennedy, had glowing things to say about the soldier-statesman. It was friendly and affectionate, but the heroic—almost awe-struck—tenor of the careful prose accompanying the old news-reel clips seemed general and complimentary. Somewhere a much loved and respected human being named Eisenhower was lost.

In just one hour it was impossible to dwell on many of the high spots of his career, but NBC could have covered more ground by eliminating half of the "hero's return" shots—the cars-and-confetti ones.

It was a nice gesture, but it was not a very stimulating or even well-organized TV show.

NBC is hunting around for some big name to debate the question of the West modifying its policy toward the Soviet Union on its Jan. 21 "The Nation's Future" show. Former New York Governor Thomas E. Dewey was scheduled to lock horns with British Labor Party leader Hugh Gaitskill, but cancelled out Tuesday.

James Garner's first outside film job since the actor and his Warner Brothers bosses started legal feuding almost a year ago will be an episode of CBS' "Angel" series.

NBC's "Riverboat" is scuttled with next Monday's episode—a re-broadcast of an October show. The following week "The Americans," a Civil War adventure series, bows into the time slot.

Recommended tonight: Bob Hope Show, NBC, 9-10 EST—the comedian's annual Christmas show for GIs taped at bases in the Caribbean, including Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba; Steel Hour, CBS, 10-11—"The Mating Machine" a comedy starring Diana Lynn and George Grizzard.

Try to Pass Rules Dispute Is Protested

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—A leadership move to sidetrack a fight over strengthening the Senate's filibuster rule fueled fresh controversy today and left prospects for a vote in doubt.

A motion to refer the dispute to the Senate Rules Committee for study was offered late Tuesday by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana with the backing of Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

But liberals of both parties rose in protest and Mansfield's attempt to obtain agreement to vote on the motion Friday was blocked.

Ever since the Senate met Jan. 3 it has been caught up in a dispute over whether to change its rules to make it easier to break a filibuster. It now takes a two-thirds majority of senators voting.

Mansfield, in moving to refer the issue to the Rules Committee for hearings, said he wanted to avoid a long, disruptive fight at the start of the session that would delay action on President-elect John F. Kennedy's legislative program.

As chairman of the Rules Committee, he pledged to leave no stone unturned to bring back for action later in the session a measure to place a tighter curb on filibusters.

Family Feud Has Husband Down

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Doesn't a husband stick to his wife and forget his parents after he marries, or does a mother come before a wife?

My parents and aunt and sisters let me and my wife down when we buried our son. They never showed up at the funeral but they go to other funerals. I saw them at one the other day. How can I be cheerful and hold no grudge against them? —Mike

Dear Mike: That's a tough one for there is never any logic or reasoning to family feuds. But, believe me, the only sane course is to remain friendly to all concerned, no matter how they act. Forgiveness comes more naturally to a man. Make the effort. This need in no wise change your view that your wife comes first, but it doesn't follow that a man should forget his mother altogether when he marries. There should be room for both wife and mother in his heart.

Dear Helen:

My husband and I have been married seven years and are expecting our third child. My husband is a good father. Recently I found out that a girl he knew as a child is having lunch and coffee breaks with him at work. We often meet her at church and uptown during the weekend. She never even looks at me. When I say anything about the way he acts about her, he gets mad. She is not married. What should I do—overlook all of this and hope for the best, or what? —Mrs. S. J.

Dear Mrs. S. J.: Lay down the law. If there is one time you would be justified, it is now, when you are carrying your husband's third child. Make him ashamed of himself. He should be.

Dear Helen:

My mother and father have been married 22 years and are on the verge of divorce, though I'm sure they love each other very much.

To tell the truth, my father is a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Two drinks and he's a different man, fighting mother till she gets frustrated and takes it out on us children.

permit debates to be limited by the vote of 51 senators, or a majority of the 100 members, pro- tested this course.

They argued that any change in rules recommended by the Rules Committee was likely to run into a Southern filibuster that could not be shut off except by a two-thirds majority.

Their fight for action now is based on the contention that at the outset of a new Congress a filibuster against a change in Senate rules can be halted by majority vote.

dren. We've got a serious problem. Help — Very Much Trouble

Dear Very Much Trouble: You children should show your parents that you are more mature than they by calling a family council of war. Say you love them and know they love each other, though they don't act like it. Tell them that for their own sakes, as well as yours, they must grow up.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Divorce."

Russia Has Rebuffed Laos Plan

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union reportedly has rebuffed a U.S. suggestion that an international control commission for Laos be revived.

The Soviet rejection was said to have been given Tuesday to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter by Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov.

Menshikov held a 40-minute discussion on Laos with Herter at the State Department. The talk was at Menshikov's request.

Britain has led the move for reviving the commission, composed of India, Poland and Canada. The United States is agreeable provided the commission is acceptable to King Savang Vatthana and the royal Lao government of pro-Western Prince Boun Oum.

The Soviet Union claims the ousted government of Prince Souvanna Phouma, a neutralist who has fled Laos in the civil war raging in the Southeast Asia kingdom, is the legal government.

State Department press officer Lincoln White declined to say "yes" or "no" when asked if the discussion had been encouraging. He said Menshikov "came in to discuss the situation in Laos as he sees it from his standpoint."

Menshikov referred to the talks as "a quiet discussion." He said he gave Herter no notes or proposals and U.S. officials said they saw no particular encouragement in his call. Nor would U.S. officials picture the visit as a forerunner of negotiations on Laos.

The State Department confirmed reports that the United States has sent light aircraft—

Sheriffs Meet at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Sheriffs Association today begins a two-day annual convention during which a salary increase for county officials will be a major topic.

Also to be discussed is the National Sheriffs Convention which is expected to attract some 1,200 officials to Little Rock June 11-14.

It was not known what action the group will take on the salary proposal, but Desha Sheriff Robert Moore said he expected some recommendation to be made. Moore, executive secretary of the Arkansas association and president of the national group, said the sheriffs probably would call on the legislature for salary relief for at least the officials of larger counties.

Legislative action also may be asked on regulation of the sale and possession of firearms Moore said.

The association's annual banquet is scheduled tonight, with legislators and constitutional officers to be guests. New officers will be elected Thursday morning.

The only national memorial in Missouri is a bust of George Washington Carver, west of Diamond, where he was born of slave parents.

Hagerty Made Boss Look Good

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—For eight years a take-charge man with big eyeglasses and more than enough chin did an extraordinary job of making his boss, the President of the United States, look good.

Now James C. Hagerty, President Eisenhower's press secretary with a beard of a temper and so much self-assurance he could hold a surplus sale, is leaving.

When he turned in his resignation, Eisenhower said he had been invaluable. And indeed he was. Eisenhower admittedly didn't do much newspaper reading. Hagerty, a 51-year-old grandfather and former newspaperman, was to a large extent the President's eyes and ears.

He was more than that. He not only was a buffer between the President and the press to a degree unmatched in this century, he was also Eisenhower's mouthpiece.

But he was no blabbermouth. He never got his devotion to news mixed up with his loyalty to Eisenhower. He never said anything to embarrass his boss. He didn't make slips.

Hagerty was a master of two things which a lot of press relations men never learn: He paid attention to details and informed himself on problems he had to handle.

Seem simple? It's amazing how many people in Washington don't do either.

In time Hagerty became Eisenhower's scout, a kind of private emissary, who went ahead of the President when he planned a trip abroad and arranged for his safety and convenience.

He became such a strong and established figure in the group around Eisenhower that he was almost certainly an advisor on policy.

Hagerty was unchallenged within the administration as emperor of his special domain from the time he took charge of the news about Eisenhower's heart attack in 1955.

His forthrightness in keeping the country informed at that critical time was widely admired. He seemed a lot less forthright when Eisenhower had his ileitis operation.

Hagerty's attention to detail goes away back beyond the time he went to work in the White House. He was press secretary to New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey when the latter ran for the presidency in 1944 and 1948.

He was a tough, efficient operator then. Dewey turned him over

TIME FOR VIOLENCE

By Noel M. Loomis Chapter XXVII

He awoke out of a sound sleep to hear Logan saying, "Wagner! Bart Wagner!" and Bart tried to force his eyes open. Logan finally touched his shoulder, and Bart awoke and swung to a sitting position. "At least you know how to wake a man up," he said.

"I got shot at once in a cow camp by touching a man first. That was down near San Antonio when I was ridin' watch on a trail herd. I went over to this fellow—"

"Did Mrs. Lewis come home?" asked Bart.

"Rode through about 10 minutes ago. said she traded horses somewhere up on the plains so she could get home tonight. Said she was expectin' you."

Bart pulled on his hat. "You told her I was here?"

"Well, no," said Logan. "You didn't say I should, and I—"

"Good," Bart stood up. "Have you seen the black lately?"

Logan squinted and scratched his ear. "No, sir. No, sir, can't say that I have, right now. I'll send the kids lookin' though."

"Never mind. You know where Jones' camp is?"

"Yes, sir. You got the makin' in?"

Bart gave him the sack of tobacco. "You go up to where you can keep an eye on Jones. If a party leaves his camp and heads toward the JB, come and tell me immediately—pronto!"

"Yes, sir."

"If you do your part, I'll see you get a whole box of cigars. If you don't, I'll bring your neck."

Bart found his saddle and the feedbag on it. He poured a handful of dry corn into the hard leather of the nosebag and rattled it a few times. He heard no trotting hooves, no answering whicker, and he walked in a semicircle around the house, rattling the corn.

Hepzibah looked out the door at him.

"I saw the black goin' south," she said, "soon after you went to sleep."

It was the first time he had heard her speak, and she had an unexpectedly soft and pleasant voice.

That was the direction of the JB, and he realized then that the black must have come to think of the JB as its home pasture.

Then Logan's voice came from behind him, breathless. "Five men," he said, "saddled up and went south at a lope."

Bart swung on him. "The black is gone! Have you got a horse?"

"Sort of an old plowhorse," said Logan. "You want I should send fer him?"

"Yes!" Bart shouted.

Sampson's greatest virtue was his size. He could not be kicked into a lope or a gallop, but he to Eisenhower when the general became a candidate. As it turned out, this was one of the best things Dewey did for Eisenhower.

Now Hagerty goes to the American Broadcasting Company as vice president to build up its news reporting. He succeeds John Daly.

Unlike Daly who did broadcasting himself, Hagerty will stay out of sight, try to build up a staff, and let the staff do the talking.

Not talking will be a switch for him.

West Slight Favorite in Pro Game

LOS ANGELES (AP) — West team is a one-point ch over the East for Sunday's bowl. It's the shortest spread in the West in years.

Ordinarily, the team representing the Western Conference of the National Football League rates a three to seven-point edge over the Eastern Conference representative.

The West has responded by winning 6 of the first 10 pro bowl games.

The game this year featured two fine quarterbacks — Johnny Unitas of Baltimore for the West and Norm Van Brocklin of Philadelphia for the East.

Baltimore's running attack collapsed late last season and with Alan Ameche out, defensive units against the Colts were able to contain Lenny Moore on sweeps and gang up on Unitas and his receivers when he took to the air. Unitas will have adequate ground power Sunday—and a top notch fullback in Jim Taylor of Green Bay.

Van Brocklin passed Philadelphia to the NFL title and the Eagles won nine games in a row after losing the season opener.

Porkers Licked by Aggies for Second Loss

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas A&M fought off Arkansas Tuesday night to take a 81-62 basketball victory and undisputed possession of first place in the Southwest Conference race. The Aggies with a 3-0 record are the only undefeated team in conference play.

Texas handed Texas Tech its first league defeat, 63-55, to go into a tie for second place with Tech and Rice. Rice defeated Texas Christian 62-60. Southern Methodist won its first conference game, an easy 75-64 win over Baylor.

Temper flared briefly in the closing minutes of the Baylor-Southern Methodist clash at Dallas. SMU's Steve Strange, the conference's leading scorer, and Baylor's John Hoggard were scrapping for the ball and started trading wild swings. SMU's big Jan Loudermilk quickly separated them before any damage was done.

Strange scored 26 points to boost his season total to 275. Carroll Broussard was the big man in Texas A&M's rout of Arkansas at College Station. Broussard, the league's third ranked scorer, collected 37 points.

It was the second loss for Arkansas but the Razorbacks made a fight of it. They led 31-26 with five minutes remaining in the second half. The Aggies forged in to the lead, 39-35, at halftime. They scored 20 points to four for Arkansas in the first seven minutes of the second half and with 5:36 remaining led by 22 points, 54-32.

Pat Foster was the top Arkansas scorer with 18 points. Jerry Carroll got 11.

The well-balanced Texas Longhorns forged ahead of Texas Tech at Austin after the first three and a half minutes and never were behind. Texas led by as much as 13 points in the first half, hitting their field shots at a 50 per cent clip. The Longhorns cooled off in the second half and Tech pulled to within four points with nine minutes to go.

Albert Almanza led Texas scoring with 14 points. Jimmy Brown had 13, Butch Skeete 12, and Donnie Lasiter 11. For Tech Del Ray Mounts, the conference's second highest scorer, got 17 points.

At Houston, Rice had little trouble subduing Texas Christian. The Owls built up a halftime lead of 49-32 and with 5:17 left in the game were ahead 80-32. Steve lead of 49-32 and with 5:17 left in the game were ahead 80-32. Steve Smith with 24 points and Olle Shipley with 23 led the Rice sharpshooters. Alton Adams was top TCU scorer with 15 points. Jerry Cobb got 13.

Assistant New Coach of Giants

NEW YORK (AP)—Allie Sherman, new head coach of the New York Giants, lobs the Cleveland Browns "the team to beat" in the Eastern Division of the National Football League next season.

"I think that Philadelphia will have trouble without Norm Van Brocklin," said Sherman, who Tuesday signed a three year contract to succeed Jim Lee Howell, Van Brocklin, the Eagle's brilliant quarterback, retired after leading them to the league championship.

"I don't like to make predictions this early," said Sherman, "but I feel that we should be right up there with the Browns. Pittsburgh and St. Louis could make a run of it."

Sherman's appointment was announced at a press luncheon during which Wellington Mara, the Giants' vice president, disclosed that Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi was his club's first choice. Lombardi was an assistant coach of the Giants before moving to Green Bay.

Spring Hill Wins 2 Over Laneburg

In basketball play last night the Laneburg Junior boys edged the Spring Hill boys 26 to 23 with Kidd making 10 for the losers and Lee 15 for Laneburg.

The Spring Hill girls had little trouble beating Laneburg's girls 51 to 28. Galloway tossed in 32 for Spring Hill and Murrah 17 for Laneburg.

Spring Hill boys, led by Garner and Kidd with 19 and 18, edged Laneburg 58 to 50. Lee Carlton hit 23 for the losers. The teams will get together at Spring Hill again Thursday, Jan. 19 with the first game at 6:30 p.m.

Results of Little Loop Cage Play

In Little League Basketball play at Jones Field House Saturday afternoon, Gulf's Bo-Diddies outscored Hope Auto's Dirt Dobbers 24 to 8 as Ronnie Ingram accounted for all his teams 24 points.

In the second game, Owen's Hot Rods outshouted Copeland's Cool Cats to win 12 to 5.

In next Saturday's contest, the Cool Cats will take on the Bo-Diddies and Hope Auto will play Owens.

Tar Heels Hurt by Probation
By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The year's probation slapped on North Carolina's basketball team by the NCAA will hurt. The Tar Heels of smilin' Frank McGuire could be the toughest squad assembled at Chapel Hill since McGuire's unbeaten NCAA champions of 1957.

The Tar Heels, seventh-ranked nationally, accepted the news from Pittsburgh that makes them ineligible for this year's NCAA competition, then tumbled Wake Forest out of the Atlantic Coast Conference lead Tuesday night with an 83-74 victory.

It was the seventh in a row and ninth in 11 games for the Tar Heels, who moved up to second place in the rugged ACC with a 2-0 league record to 3-0 for Duke, the nation's No. 8 team.

Unbeaten DePaul rode Howie Carl's sharpshooting to its 11th straight victory, 69-60 over Ohio U.; third-ranked St. Bonaventure (12-1) crushed Gannon (Pa) 103-71, and Marquette snapped Detroit's 23-game home court winning streak, 65-63, in other top games on the college schedule.

Texas A&M, behind a 37-point burst by Carroll Broussard, sped into the Southwest Conference lead at 3-0 with an 81-62 decision over Arkansas, and Texas' balanced defending champions got back into the race by handing Texas Tech its first defeat 63-55.

In other SWC games, Steve Smith's 24 points led Rice's 82-60 whipping of TCU, and SMU, with Steve Strange scoring 22 points, handed Baylor its 11th loss in 13 games, 75-64.

Mississippi state won its second straight Southeastern Conference test, 80-63 over Alabama, and Western Kentucky wheeled to its fifth consecutive Ohio Valley triumph, 82-78 over Tennessee Tech. LaSalle, behind Joe Carey's 22 points, beat Lehigh 77-62 for a 4-0 record that tops the Middle Atlantic Conference, and The Citadel nipped William & Mary 64-63 in overtime and pulled into a tie with West Virginia for second place in the Southern Conference. Stanford handed California's slumping Bears their third straight defeat, 53-52, and Oklahoma City (10-4) set a team record with 42 field goals in routing Hardin-Simmons 106-85.

Alford Asks Delay in Redistricting
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark) today asked Gov. Orval Faubus and Arkansas legislative leaders to delay redistricting the state until Congress considers a proposal to enlarge the House.

Arkansas is slated to lose two of its six House seats as a result of the 1960 census. It is up to the state legislature to redistrict the state.

A-HUNTING THEY WENT—Three heads of state enjoy their hunting but adopt different costumes to pursue the sport. Left, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is his usual dapper self as he walks through the woods of Douglas, Scotland, equipped with spats and walking stick. Center, President Tito has a booted, rough-and-ready look in the Karadordjevo hunting preserve in Yugoslavia. Right, hard-hatted President Eisenhower quick-marches with shouldered gun on a quail-hunting expedition near Albany, Ga.

Tough New Athletic Code Likely

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A tougher athletic code than that broken by North Carolina, Arizona and Loyola of New Orleans was before the National Collegiate Athletic Association today.

New legislation would provide for a national letter of intent, a general five-year eligibility rule, a stiffer transfer rule and limitations on the use of foreign athletes.

The bigger schools made the news Tuesday, but the NCAA's small colleges were expected to dominate today's formal session and kill most of impending rule changes.

There was little sympathy expressed by the small ones when North Carolina, Arizona and Loyola each were placed on probation for one year by the NCAA Council.

Preliminary round table discussion on the key legislation indicated the smaller schools, which dominate the sprawling organization, feel it is up to the institutions and their conferences to legislate the question of athletic eligibility.

North Carolina and Loyola, as part of their probation, were barred from postseason championships and other basketball tournaments cooperating with the NCAA. Arizona, whose guilt came from football violations, received probation only with no additional sanctions.

Arizona's probation stemmed from regular monthly cash payments to football players, conducting an in-season tryout for a football player and transporting a prospective player to the campus for a summer job prior to enrollment at the university.

North Carolina came under fire for excessive expenses in basketball recruiting and for paying the expenses of varsity players' parents to the annual December Dixie Classic.

The NCAA said Loyola awarded a basketball scholarship in an unapproved manner, then revoked the scholarship when the boy couldn't make the team.

Today's business session was expected to be a long one. Delegates were hoping it would end before the annual dinner of the American Football Coaches Association.

The AFCA will announce its major and small college coaches of the year. There were eight nominations in each category.

matter of FACT

A religious sect in India called "Thugs" murdered in honor of the goddess Kali. A victim would be picked, and three or four Thugs followed him, sometimes for days. When he reached a lonely spot, he was strangled, robbed and buried. Plunder was offered to the goddess but the Thugs kept some of the loot, too.

Shirt Plant Is Training Help

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP)—Officials of the Mar-Bax Shirt Co., which plans to open a plant at nearby Gassville, said that 62 women are undergoing instruction now at a training center here.

They said six will be added daily until a peak of 10 trainees is reached. The firm earlier had opened training centers at Yellville and Gassville.

Construction of a permanent plant, which will be financed by a $535,000 bond issue approved by voters, is being held up pending an Arkansas Supreme Court ruling on Act 2 of 1959, which permits counties to join together to finance industry.

Cat Under Hood
NEWCASTLE, Wyo. (AP)—Ted Draper's missing cat has popped up—under the hood of a car in Osage, 15 miles away. The car's owner, Roy Jones, said the cat appeared unhurt but he couldn't figure out how it got there.

He was hoping it would end before the annual dinner of the American Football Coaches Association.

The AFCA will announce its major and small college coaches of the year. There were eight nominations in each category.

NRA Ratings for Local Shooters

In December, the following members of the Jr. Rifle Club earned NRA qualification awards:

In the advanced group, Sonny Kitchens was high man for the week, in 4 position shooting with a 359.

New State Set Up in Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—A cousin of deposed Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba today was reported setting up a new tribal state in the North Katanga Province area occupied by Lumumbist troops from Stanleyville over the weekend.

Reports said RENE Mwamba, Lumumba's former minister of justice, led the movement into North Katanga and proclaimed a regime independent of both the Leopoldville government, headed by President Joseph Kasavubu and Col. Joseph Mobutu and the secessionist Katanga government of Moise Tshombe.

Judgment for $200

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court has affirmed a $200 judgment for Pat Maddox Brewer of North Little Rock against a finance company, which seized her automobile while she was taking a bath and was, thus, unable to protest.
